

Gala Project/Basket Descriptions

PreK Blue: Enjoy this one-of-a-kind framed art piece where each child decorated their own star. Inside the middle, it says “He determines the number of stars and gives each one of them a name.”-Psalm 147

PreK Gold: Add a playful, artistic twist to game night! This one-of-a-kind hand-painted Jenga set was created as a class project, with each block individually painted for a unique and colorful look. Fully playable and totally original, it's both a fun game and a display-worthy piece. Perfect for families, game lovers, or anyone who appreciates creative craftsmanship—no two blocks are the same!

Kindergarten: The “Glory Be” prayer, each word written by one of the kindergarten students, with pictures of each kindergarten students praying hands around the outside

1st Grade: Jory John's Food Group series-themed canvas painting (each child will contribute with a Food Group character of their choosing). The winner will also receive a book and stuffy from the series!

2nd Grade: table runner decorated by 2nd grade

3rd Grade:

Only One Thing Is Necessary – Third Grade Prayer Journal

This one-of-a-kind prayer journal was created by the third-grade class and inspired by our school theme, “Only one thing is necessary” (Luke 10:42). Each page features a handwritten prayer and illustration from a student, reflecting what they believe matters most in their relationship with God. A meaningful keepsake celebrating faith, simplicity, and the voices of our children.

4th Grade: A “Spot It” table and a corresponding book to find pictures on the table. Fun for all ages and washable!

Middle School Basket:

This is a perfect basket for bringing joy to a birthday party or a family night at home. “The Present Game” is similar to a white elephant; it is a game of guessing and taking risks. Complete with instructions and everything you need to play!
