Upcoming LWML Events:

Tickets on Sale Today: Annual Red Boot Brunch (December 5 at 10:00 AM)
Tickets go on sale today for our annual Red Boot Brunch, held in the fellowship hall. This year's theme is "O Christmas Tree," where we will explore the beautiful Christian symbolism of the Christmas tree. Tickets are $10 each.

- Tree Decorating: We ask each attendee to bring an ornament to help decorate the Fellowship Hall tree. To keep with our theme, please no Santas, snowmen, or Grinches. All ornaments will be safely returned to you after Christmas when we "undecorate" the hall.
- Our Featured Charity: This year, we are supporting "Together at Home" in Leesburg, a wonderful home dedicated to keeping siblings in foster care together (they currently house 4 sets of 3 siblings). You may remember Justin, who spoke to us about this mission at our Soup Supper back in September.

Please join us for a beautiful time of fellowship, learning, and a delicious brunch!

LWML is pleased to announce that they are sponsoring a deaconess student at Concordia Seminary, Fort Wayne. We have committed to send her $100 each month for this school year. Our student is Melisa Renae Holdway from the state of Washington. We ask that you join us in praying for this student.

HEAD'S UP

Our December selection will be The Borrowed Life of Frederick Fife by . I think you will all enjoy this delightful novel that will leave you in tears of sadness but also laughter. Frederick, who is homeless and penniless, ends up in an assisted living facility due to a case of mistaken identity where he enjoys three square meals a day and a comfy warm bed. This is the sort of novel that we need for the holidays. The Belleview library has several copies if you can't find it at yours.
