12. Please suggest strategies to support successful school and family interactions. For example: changing times or formats.

I think it works just fine now. I wouldn't change anything.

Posting & pinning to top of fb or texting what is happening in district weekly or something to remind parents of every event happening title 1 night, sports games, parent teacher mtg, early dismissal or no school days, board meetings, field trips, any event should be reminded and told so people are aware. Life is so busy these days people forget. It just helps busy parents.

I think the school does a good job with the Facebook posts. I like the important dates that were posted and sent out at the beginning of the year. We keep it on our fridge.

Don't change any thing better food, food fuels the brain

Keep doing what you're doing. It works.

I think all the times work just fine. This little school does more than what big schools do.

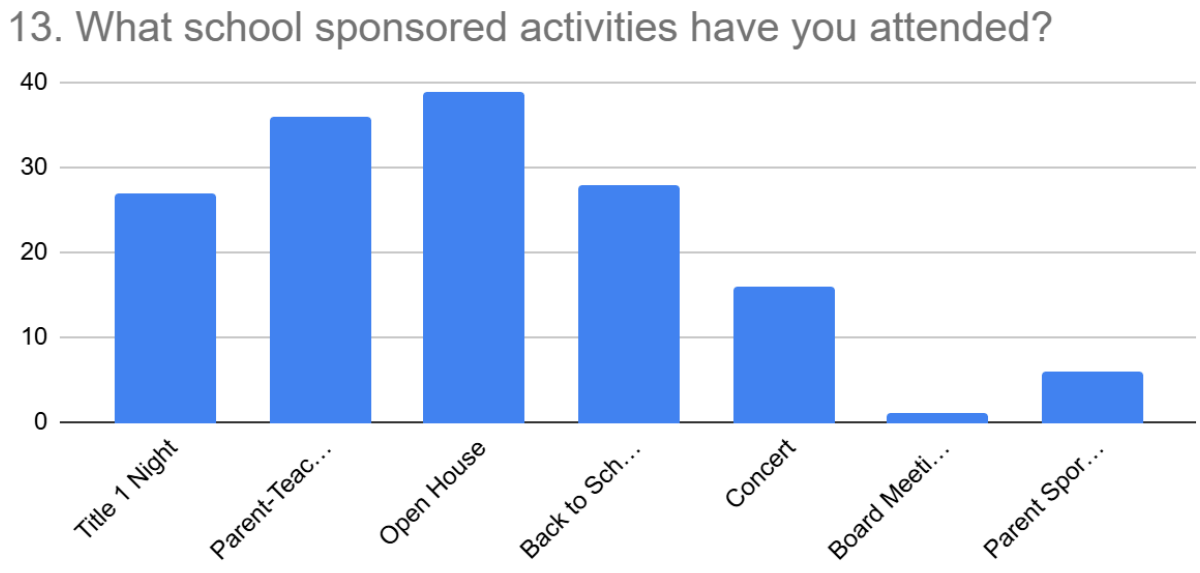

Classes for lower grades so upper grades can stay for activities.

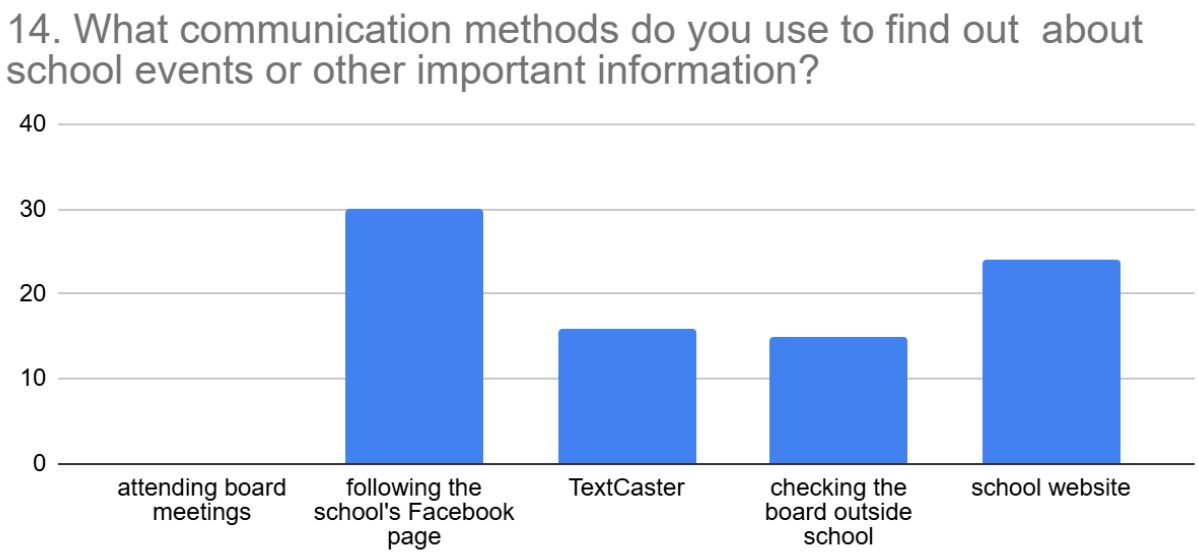

Seems to work fine for me.

More Do-Jo updates.

None. The routines and criteria are set great in my opinion.

Open gym night when available.
