8th Graders from Diocesan Catholic Schools shared "lessons learned from their Catholic education".
Published in the Southern Cross Diocesan Catholic News paper
And included was our own Ryan Lewis.

RYAN LEWIS

St. Kieran Catholic School

The most important lessons that I have learned during my time at Catholic school are our learning expectations. These consist of being a life-long learner, a Catholic learner, and a responsible citizen. These expectations have helped shape me into the person I am today and affect all my decisions. Additionally, I learned that everyone was born equal and should be treated equally.

I believe my faith will guide me throughout my high school experience by helping me to make decisions based on my Catholic values. Furthermore, I think my faith will help me to surround myself with like-minded people who will help me to make good decisions and succeed academically and spiritually. Lastly, I have made it a habit to ask God to help me be the best version of myself.
