

Bryan Dooley, Executive Director
New Mexico Regional Education Cooperative IX

Bryan is a graduate of Deming High School. He earned a BA from Eastern New Mexico University, a second BS degree from Western New Mexico University, and an associate in applied science from San Juan College. Bryan holds a license as a physical therapist assistant. Bryan comes from a family of educators. His father was a high school math teacher and basketball coach for 25 years, while his mother worked as a substitute teacher and librarian for many years.

Bryan has worked in education for 41 years. He has worked at Region IX in Ruidoso for 25 years, serving in various capacities that have included technology, special projects, Human Resources, and Business Services. Bryan has proudly served as the Executive Director of REC IX for the past 10 years.

Bryan is a past president of the NM Regional Education Cooperatives Association. Bryan is optimistic about the work of our Association. He describes REC IX as “an innovative Regional Education Cooperative that provides exceptional services to children, families, and communities in New Mexico.”

Bryan was NMRECA’s Administrator of the Year in 2022.
