

Damon Terry, Executive Director
REC 6

Damon Terry, the REC-6 Director, graduated from Eastern New Mexico University with a bachelor's in business in 1999. He earned his Master's degree in Agricultural Education from Texas Tech University in 2001. He is a licensed Teacher, Business Manager, and Educational Administrator in the state of New Mexico.

Mr. Terry has extensive professional experience and long-term roots in the region. Mr. Terry grew up in Floyd and graduated from Elida High School. Mr. Terry spent 21 years of his career in the Floyd Municipal School District, where he served in numerous capacities, including Computer Teacher, ENMU Dual Credit Teacher, Technology Coordinator, Business Office Manager, Elementary Principal, High School Principal, and Superintendent.

Mr. Terry has a strong passion for helping the rural schools thrive as he believes in the quality and value of the students and staff in the region. He has a deep understanding of the unique challenges faced by the rural schools. He understands the challenges New Mexico schools face in the classroom as well as on the budgeting and management levels. Mr. Terry is a patient and concerned leader whose strength is in his ability to listen to others. Mr. Terry is committed continuing to create a supportive and inclusive learning environment for all schools in this region.