

DR. KEVIN MCCASLAND
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, REGIONAL EDUCATION COOPERATIVE #7

For the past twenty-four years, he has dedicated his career to serving students, families, and educators across multiple roles in public education. He earned his Bachelor of Science, Master of Education in Educational Leadership, and Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership from West Texas A&M University. Over the course of his career, he has served as a teacher and coach, a principal, and a superintendent—each position offering a new opportunity to positively impact the lives of children.

He currently serves as the Executive Director of Regional Education Cooperative VII (REC 7) in Hobbs, New Mexico. In this role, he supports the districts of Lea County, including Tatum, Lovington, Hobbs, Eunice, and Jal. His passion for teaching, learning, and service continues to guide his work, and he remains committed to strengthening educational opportunities and outcomes for every student he has the privilege to serve.
