7. Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP) a. At the last meeting, the SSC recommended to the principal that we continue focusing on literacy, math, and the arts. b. There was a new request to allocate funds for sports and athletics. c. At this SSC meeting, the principal will be requesting more input on the development of the LCAP. <hr/> Parent and Staff Input - Nikki mentioned that it would be nice to have an internural for the students or a sports club. Since we're a small school, it would be nice to have a club or an extra duty for teachers to do sports after school. - Fall Sports (Basketball, Soccer, Volleyball, Badminton, Flag Football) - Spring Sports (Track/Field, Girls on the Run, Divo Team, Kick Ball, Tennis) - To begin having more sports at school, the SSC is suggesting that we begin having sport units during the school day. - To further involve our students, Elizabeth suggested that we play games against Pope Valley. - A choir program could be another way to enhance the program. - A parent requested that the district consider offering gas money to parents. In the future, the district should budget for gas when parents are being asked to volunteer by driving students for a field trip.	Informational	Principal
