The Preschool Press

We enjoyed celebrating Catholic Schools Week by showing our appreciation to others. On Tuesday Preschool presented a card of thanks to Fr. Rey.

Our themes for next week are love one another and the gift of friendship. We will be learning about The Golden Rule and focusing on the letter O.

Beginning in February, we are happy to be welcoming back Kidokinetics to our Preschool. This is a great program that will introduce the children to many different sports at an age appropriate level. They will be offering a free trial class next Tuesday, parents must sign a waiver for their child to participate. Please see me with any questions.
