

Allegheny-Clarion Valley School District: Assistant to the Superintendent Vacancy

About the position: The Allegheny-Clarion Valley School District is seeking an experienced, dynamic, and visionary leader to serve in the newly-created position of Assistant to the Superintendent. This vitally important role was designed to align the strategic succession plan of the district with our vision and mission. This position will work closely with the current Superintendent in a structured mentorship capacity throughout the 2026-2027 school year, gaining comprehensive, hands-on experience in district-level leadership. This intentional succession-development model is designed to prepare the Assistant to the Superintendent to transition into the Superintendent role beginning in the following school year.

Our district: Allegheny-Clarion Valley School District is a rural district situated in picturesque Clarion County and serves an enrollment population of approximately 700 students in grades K-12. The district is exceptionally unique, with students residing in four counties – Clarion, Venango, Armstrong, and Butler. The area may be rural, but what it may lack in population is more than abundant in natural beauty, recreational and outdoor activities, and community spirit. The complexity of our geographic location from a taxation standpoint will be an important aspect for the successful candidate to learn.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Master's degree in Education, Educational Leadership, or closely-related field; Doctorate is preferred
- At least five (5) years of administrative experience in a public school district, preferably in central office roles
- Pennsylvania Superintendent Letter of Eligibility
- Demonstrated knowledge of financial planning and school-based budgeting

Send letter of interest, resume, PA standard application, transcripts, copy of certification(s), three current letters of reference dated within one year, and clearances to Dr. David McDeavitt, Superintendent, Allegheny-Clarion Valley School District, Box 100, Foxburg, PA 16036
Deadline: Noon, Friday, March 31, 2026.
