

UPPER ADAMS SCHOOL DISTRICT

Full Time Position Opening: Director of Athletics
Location: Upper Adams Middle/High School
Date of Availability: 2026-2027

Upper Adams School District is seeking a dynamic, collaborative, and student-centered Director of Athletics to lead and oversee our comprehensive interscholastic athletic program. This leadership position is responsible for providing vision and direction for all athletic programs while ensuring a positive, safe, and competitive experience for our student-athletes. The Athletic Director works closely with coaches, administrators, students, families, and the community to promote excellence in athletics while supporting the District's educational mission.

The successful candidate will supervise and evaluate coaching staff, coordinate athletic schedules and events, manage departmental budgets, oversee athletic facilities and equipment, ensure compliance with PIAA and district regulations, and foster strong relationships with students, parents, and community partners. This position requires exceptional leadership, communication, organizational, and problem-solving skills, as well as the ability to manage multiple priorities during both daytime and evening hours.

Qualified candidates should possess a strong background in athletics and coaching, demonstrated leadership experience, and a commitment to building a culture of sportsmanship, integrity, and student success. If you are passionate about developing student-athletes, supporting coaches, and advancing a high-quality athletic program, we invite you to join the Upper Adams School District team.
