

The Bald Eagle Area School District, located within a short drive of the campuses of Penn State University and Lock Haven University, offers a robust educational program for students in a community-focused setting. The district combines easy access to the opportunities and amenities of nearby college campuses, with the tight-knit family feel of our rural community school district.

We are in search of a motivated applicant to join the BEA family for the following position: Elementary Special Education Teacher

Interested applicants are required to have a valid PA teaching certificate in: Special Education

This position is available immediately.

Application deadline: October 24, 2025

Salary is in accordance to the current Collective Bargaining Agreement.

To apply and for further information, please visit this site: <https://beasdpe.schoolspring.com/>